

"PEARL FISHERS" TO OPEN OPERA SEASON

First Complete Presentation of Bizet's Work at Metropolitan Next Monday.

BILLS IN FOUR TONGUES

"Aida" at Popular Prices Saturday Night—"Boris Godunoff" in Brooklyn.

The repertoire for the opening week of the opera season at the Metropolitan will include two German operas, two Italian and one each of French and Russian. The schedule for the first week was announced yesterday by General Manager Gatti-Casazza.

The initial performance next Monday evening will be Bizet's "Les Pecheurs de Perse," in French. This will be a novelty for New York. Only the acts of the work have ever been given here, and they were produced only once at a matinee, January 11, 1896, with Calve. The opening night cast will include Mme. Frieda Hempel as Leila, Caruso as Nadir, De Luca as Zurga and Botha as the High Priest.

Giorgetti will conduct and the corps de ballet will be led by Miss Galli.

The scenery is from the studios of Vittorio Rotta and Angelo Parravicini of Milan.

HILL FOR THE WEEK.

Other operas announced for the week follow:

"Tristan und Isolde," on Wednesday evening with Mmes. Kurt and Homer and Messrs. Ullrich, Well, Braun, Schleifer, Reiss, Bloch and Bayer. Arthur Bodenky will conduct.

"Manon Lescaut," on Thursday evening with Mmes. Alida and Perini and Messrs. Arcara, Scotti, De Segurola, Rossi, Reiss, Bada, Audioso and Reschigni. Genarro Papi will debut his debut as a comic tenor.

"Der Rosenkavalier," on Friday evening with Mmes. Hempel, Herold, Mason, Curtis, Matfield, Van Dyck, Braslau, Tiffany, Maerker and Dobbin, and Messrs. Goritz, Well, Althouse, Reiss, Schlegel, Audioso, Ruydesel, Bloch, Bayer and Burghardt, with Bodenky conducting.

"Prinz Igor," at the Saturday matinee with Mmes. Alida, Perini, Delamio and Esener and Messrs. Amato, Botta, Didur, De Segurola, Bada and Audioso. Miss Galli and Mr. Bonfiglio will lead the Tatar ballet in the third act. Polacco will conduct.

"ALIDA" AT POPULAR PRICES.

"Alida" will be sung at a special popular price performance of Saturday evening by Miss Rappold, Hommer and Schleifer and Messrs. Matfield, De Luca, Bader, Rossi and Audioso, with Paul Smits.

Mosk Elman, violinist, will play at the first Sunday night opera concert on November 19.

Seats for the opening night can be had only by mail order. The public seat sale for other performances will open Monday.

"Boris Godunoff" will open the Brooklyn opera season at the Brooklyn Academy of Music on Tuesday evening, November 14. It will be sung by Mmes. Ober, Delamio, Sparke, Howard and Matfield and Messrs. Didur, Rother, De Segurola, Bada, Reschigni, Botta, Reschigni, Audioso, Bada, Reschigni, Botta, Bader, Rossi and Audioso. Paul Smits will conduct.

FOUR NEW PLAYS COMING.

Anna Held in "Follow Me" or Program of Shuberts.

The Shuberts have announced that they will produce four new pieces in New York this November, all of them musical. They are "Follow Me," with Anna Held; "Her Soldier Boy," with Clifton Crawford, John Charles Thomas and Margaret Romaine, and "Girls Will Be Girls." The fourth is dramatic, "Such Is Life," in which Sam Sothern will appear. The names of the theatres and the exact dates of the openings have not yet been announced.

Anna Held opens her season in Albany to-night, and will go from there to Boston before coming to New York. "Follow Me" adapted from the German by Eric Linenthal, with Clifton Crawford and Sigfried Romberg. The book of "Her Soldier Boy" is by Victor Leon, author of "The Merry Widow." The music is by Emericich Kalmar, composer of "Star."
